Further from the Oregon City Fire.

OREGON CITY, Nov. 26, 1872.

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Your correspondent in writing details of the calamitous fire in this city, made the statement, "it is most extraordinary how the dye and wool houses were saved." His own household being in imminent danger and requiring personal attention, it is not surprising that he was not everywhere during the fire, and for this reason, in his communication, he did not give honor to whom honor was due. However he has since ascertained that Messrs. M. A. Stratton, Secretary, Theo. Clarke, Thos. Rawley, Chas. Weeks, Jas. Chase, A. O. Yates and John Barnett, all employees and foremen of their different departments in the mill, seeing the factory itself was doomed, concentrated their efforts in the saving of the dye house and wool house, in which was stored about twenty-five thousand dollars' worth of wool, and around which was stacked 250 cords of wood. All of this, by strenuous combined effort, having the use only of two streams of water, they saved, together with several bolts of fine cassimeres and some blankets, which they rescued from the finishing room in the basement of the factory. To these gentlemen, and to a few others who assisted them, are the Company mainly indebted for the saving of more than $30,000 worth of woolen goods, besides the buildings.

Still further testimony has been elicited to confirm the supposition that the fire was an act of incendiarism. The watchman asserts (and his assertion is corroborated by others who heard it) that when he ran down the belfry to turn on the factory pump he saw several men standing on the opposite sidewalk, he shouted to them to "Come and assist with the hose. I will pay you $5 an hour if you'll come." The answer was "d—n your hose! go and get your G—d d—d Chinamen to hold your hose!" And they did not budge an inch. Mr. Slover, the watchman, says he got a fair view of one of these miscreants, and should he see him again would be able to recognize him.

The man Geo. Dowlan, who was arrested on suspicion of having set fire to the mill, was brought before Justice of the Peace Burns yesterday, and proved by two witnesses that on the night of the fire at 10 o'clock he went to bed at the Phoenix Hotel, intoxicated, and that after the alarm was given, the witness, who lodged in the next room, went to his (Dowlan's) room, found him in bed and sleeping so soundly he had much difficulty in arousing him so as to dress himself. The prosecuting witness was one Andrew Wyland, who has been sentenced to the county jail for maliciously cutting the ropes of a swing a Soda Springs. Dowlan, a night or two before the fire was arrested for being drunk and disorderly. After the fire the man Wyland declared he heard Dowlan say when in jail he would burn the d—d town from one end to the other but what he would get the cursed Chinamen out. After Dowlan was arrested, Wyland stated to one of the Jacobs Bros., "he would not give any testimony unless he was paid $500." With such testimony before the court Mr. F. O. McCown, prosecuting counsel, made motion that the prisoner be honorably discharged, which the court immediately ordered. The indignation of the people in court was so great against the scoundrel Wyland, that had he not been in the hands of the law he would have been very roughly handled.

CORRECT AMOUNT OF LOSS AND INSURANCE.

Mr. Isaac Jacobs informs me that after deducting the amount of insurance which is $77,500; distributed in six or seven different companies, and also the value of the wool and goods saved, the loss of the company cannot be much less than $100,000. The loss is a deplorable one not only to the company and the one hundred and twenty-five men, women and children who were employed at good wages, but to every business man in the city, and recognizing this fact the following request is in course of circulation to-day. "To the Hon. A. Noltner, Mayor of Oregon City, Sir, In view of the recent destructive fire here, we respectfully request you to call a meeting of the citizens of this place to take steps to raise money and do such other acts as will encourage the Oregon City Manufacturing Company to rebuild as soon as practicable the woolen mill."

Considering that the solid stone foundation is uninjured, and the brick tower and a great portion of the walls may not have to be pulled down, there is no doubt the amount of insurance will more than put the mills in running order again, and with an available water power, unequalled in the world there can scarcely be a doubt that it will be rebuilt, and that speedily.

E. C. H.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON COUNTY.

HILLSBORO, Nov. 26, 1872.

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The present fine weather is being improved by the farmers of Washington county. The prospect is that a large number of them will get in their usual number of acres. The low price of grain, together with the high price for shipping, has forced many to draw their grain to market on their wagons. This has thrown them behind in seeding, and had it not been for the present propitious season, the county would fall short of its usual acreage materially. The farmers have labored hard and patiently, waiting for the time to come when facilities would reach them that would lift the burthen of expensive shipment from their shoulders, and place the season for seeding at their disposal. But until farmers can ship their grain for less than they can afford to haul it, nothing better can be expected, than that the farm will be deprived of the seasonable labor which is so necessary to its production. In view of those things, there is a strong probability that the farmers will turn their attention more to the raising of stock, as there is less expense attached to marketing it than to the moving of grain. The men who have heretofore tilled the soil, have watched with envious eye the prosperity of the stock man, and have only toiled on in hopes that a stability in the grain market would be reached. But they find themselves in as bad a condition to-day, as they were before the dawn of the "glorious days of railroading," which was to fill our harbors with ships from every port, eager to carry away all that farmers could produce, at the lowest charges Perhaps, the present condition of things cannot be helped, but there is one thing certain, and that is unless the managers of our shipping interests can so arrange it, that a cheaper and better means of shipment will be placed at the disposal of the farmers of Oregon, they will in a few years find a sad falling off in the amount of grain to be shipped. If any one doubts this, let him take a trip through the farming districts and talk with the farmers on this subject. The universal remark is, "What is the good of our climate and productive soil? It is only once in three years that we can get anything for what we raise." Perhaps this is more keenly felt this year, on account of the anticipations that farmers had indulged in regard to a market. With a country so productive as ours; with its salubrious climate and its never-failing crops, with its great bodies of tillable land, a shipping ought to be established, that at once should be independent and lucrative.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 26.

EASTERN STATES.

From the Shipping.

NEW YORK Nov 26.—The Baltic arrived to-day She had a very rough passage She brought the captain and crew, 19 in number, of the British ship Assyria, which was logged and abandoned on the 9th inst. The crew was rescued with great difficulty, and lost everything

The ship Egypt arrived yesterday She had encountered a heavy gale on the 16th, and suffered seriously.

The Europe, from Glasgow, which arrived yesterday, met the same storm and lay to 67 hours.

The steamship Carolina, of Baltimore, for Liverpool, on Oct 25th was found sinking by the bark Haygens. The captain his wife and crew of 25, were brought here

South Carolina Legislature Organized.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 26.—The South Carolina Legislature met to-day Lee, (colored), was elected Speaker of the House.

Gov Moses will be inaugurated on Monday.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The President's Policy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The rough draft of the President's annual message was, though not quite finished, read to the Cabinet to-day, all of the members being present. It will perhaps be one-fifth longer than last year's message. In response to a question asked by the writer of this dispatch, the President remarked that he had no objection to saying that the message would not show a change of policy on his part, as his endeavor was now as it had been in the past, to perform his entire duty to the full extent of his ability in such a manner as would best serve the interests of the country. He was not certain that he would recommend to Congress the extension of the amnesty to two or three hundred persons excluded by recent legislation, but if he did it would be with the proposed condition that beneficiaries would take an oath to support the Constitution. Congress, however had ample authority in the premises and could act in the matter without a repetition of his views upon the subject contained in his former annual message. He saw no more necessity, as had been asserted, for further declaration of a more friendly policy toward the South than for such declaration toward the North, for he sought as President under the obligation of his oath to execute the duties of his position without favor or partiality in accordance with the law.

Cabinet Conjectures.

Probable changes in the Cabinet still continue to be the chief subject discussed in political circles. It is understood that Secretary Fish will retire from public life altogether. He intends visiting Europe in the spring. The name of E. S. Pierpont is mentioned in some quarters in connection with the Department, but there is a strong prejudice against him among Congressmen and representatives of the press, who are divided between Charles Francis Adams and G. W. Curtis.

Trying the Torpedoes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The report of the Engineer Bureau says trials with torpedoes at Millet Point showed marked success, and invitations have been made so far as to enable the Department to pronounce upon a special system by which it will arrange that the total cost of the application of this powerful auxiliary of defense to the coast will be about $2,000,000 An estimate is submitted of $500,000 for torpedoes for the defense of some of the more important harbors The report is very voluminous.

Settlement of a Large Account.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The settlement of the accounts of Assistant Quartermaster General Robert Allen, extending over a period between April, 1861, and August, 1866, shows during that time he transferred and disbursed the enormous sum of $117,831,143, and that there only remains unaccounted for about $3,000 deficiency at most from circulars

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From London.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Queen Victoria has sent £1,000 to Italy for the benefit of the sufferers by the inundations.

The case of Hepworth Dixon vs Proprietors of the Pall Mall Gazette for libel, opened to-day; Justice Boyll presiding. He was suddenly taken ill and obliged to leave the bench. Judge Brett succeeded him and the hearing was resumed. Dixon went to the stand and gave an account of his American experience, showing he was well received everywhere.

From Paris.

PARIS, Nov. 26—Evening.—The majority report of the Committee on Address was read in the Assembly this afternoon. It is a strong indictment of the Radical party, and insists upon a responsible Ministry as a means of fighting radicalism. The majority of the Committee ask for immediate consideration of the report. The Ministry moved to postpone till Thursday.

The motion to postpone was carried by 335 to 332.

The result is regarded as a very favorable indication for the Government.

The President's supporters in the Assembly believe this vote virtually ends the crisis and that a similar majority is sure for the Government next Thursday.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—Nothing new has been developed thus far to-day in the diamond matter. Gillett, one of the explorers of the diamond fields, says he is bewildered by the reports, but asserts that the gems which he found were in the kind of ground which Clarence King described in his report. Parties most deeply interested are concerned as to the effect which the exposure may have

OREGON.

Mr. Rogers, of the firm of Rogers & Heller, of Hillsboro, underwent the operation of having his toes amputated on last Wednesday.

Since the days when bad colds were first invented, there has never been such a general blowing and sneezing in Washington county. "Epizoot" is what's the matter, and everybody's got it.

On next Monday, the municipal election will take place at Albany, Friday night, the Democrats will nominate a ticket, and the Republicans will put forth another on Saturday evening. The Liberals will not run any ticket in Albany this year.

The State Brick Yard institution at Salem, is doing a smashing business this fine weather. Twenty-one teams and one hundred and twenty-three men are employed in getting out clay for next season's brick-making operations. It is intended to get ready for making four million brick.

The Statesman says: "The Secretary of State received yesterday the official returns of Baker county, by which it appears the Grant Electors received 282 votes; Greeley Electors 308; and 28 votes were scattering for various O'Conor Electors. Greeley's plurality, 26. The official votes or Columbia and Tillamook only, remain to be heard from."

A correspondent of the Statesman writing from Ellensburg, says: "Consult the surveys, ask the opinion of our coast Captains, and you will learn that Port Orford is the best summer harbor on the coast; it situated half way between the mouths of our two principal rivers; half way between our two commercial cities, San Francisco and Portland; has the proper depth of water, with abundant material, so convenient that skillful engineers have estimated that one million dollars will build all that is required for the next half century."

The musical Chinaman in the Penitentiary heretofore noticed, has quit singing and gone to stealing. The Statesman says: "He works with the other hands with pick or shovel and works well except when he has a chance to steal something. Let another man lay down a shovel, our Heathen Chinese goes for it and swaps! If a smoker lays down his pipe, he gobbles it. If nobody is watching, he snatches another man's coat or jacket and whips it on over his own. The other day he arrayed himself gorgeously in three prisoner's jackets, and he wouldn't give them up until one of the guards stripped him."

The Boston Post quotes the following from Ireland

The whole county of Wexford has been set by the ears by the reported elopement of Miss Agnes Barry, only daughter of the Hon. Hugh Barry, an ex-member of Parliament, of Newton Barry, with an American tourist, a Mr. Fitzhenry, of Boston. Miss Barry is the absolute possessor of the richest estate in the county, and is heiress to over £300,000 sterling, a sum represented by $1,500,000 gold, which she inherited from her uncle. The old gentleman having refused his consent to the nuptials, the young couple left the house secretly on the night of the 21st of October, and were driven to the residence of a clergyman near by and married in proper form. Thence they traveled to Killarney, from which place the bride wrote a number of entreating letters to her father. The old gentleman at length relented, and tendered the enraptured pair his parental benedictions.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 27.

EASTERN STATES.

Sumner on Thiers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Senator Sumner, in an interview, asserts his belief that Thiers is the right man in the right place, and thinks the Government of France is fixed on a firm basis, and praises the French people. He said Thiers delighted him. Sumner's health is considerably improved.

Bulls and Bears Fighting.

CHICAGO, Nov 27.—A New York special states that Daniel Drew settled the North Western shorts with Jay Gould at 125 He also stated positively that Henry N. Smith also settled, though not until late yesterday afternoon. It is stated that Drew's losses are not less than one million and a half dollars, and Smith's two million dollars. Com. Vanderbilt expresses disgust over the conduct of his son-in-law, Clark, going bail for Jay Gould The Commodore has published a savage card about Gould, in which he says "I have had but one business transaction with Mr. Gould in my life. In July 1868 I sold him a lot of stock for which he paid me, with privilege of a call for a further lot, which he also settled Since then I have had nothing to do with him in any way whatever, nor I do not mean ever to have, unless it be to defend myself. I have besides always advised all my friends to have nothing to do with him in any business transaction. I came to this conclusion after taking particular notice of his countenance." To a reporter who called on Vanderbilt to ask if this card is authentic he said. "I wrote it; you can print it again that I knew Jay Gould was a d—d little scoundrel the moment I set eyes on him."

About the Storms.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Passengers on the Baltic describe the storm of the 18th, which that vessel in common with many others encountered, as of terrific violence. Capt. Kennedy who has crossed the Atlantic one hundred and thirty-three times, says it was the worst storm he ever experienced. The rescue of the crew of the British ship Assyria by the Baltic was effected with the greatest difficulty and danger, and only after repeated attempts by a volunteer boat crew.

Executed.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 27. Michael Moore convicted of the murder of his wife last spring at Ebensburg, Pennsylvania, was hanged to-day in the County Jail yard of that borough He made no confession.

Recovering the Bodies.

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—Nine victims recovered from the ruins of the fire have been identified. Nineteen bodies supposed to be buried in the ruins are still missing.

Contributions to the Harvard College Fund now amount to $193,000.

Vote of Michigan.

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—The total vote of Michigan gives Grant 136,244, Greeley, 78,776

Miscellaneous Items.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The late glycerine explosion in Westchester county results in the censure of the contractor of the railroad for leaving nitro glycerine exposed.

Father Burke last evening delivered the closing lecture in reply to Mr. Froude, to an immensely crowded audience in the Academy of Music. Froude will rejoin on Saturday evening.

It is now pretty well established that Povy, the missing Kentuckian, has absconded, possibly to South America, with considerable sums entrusted to him to settle New York obligations.

ST LOUIS, Nov. 27.—Miss Mary Burnham, New York correspondent of the Missouri Republican made her debut as a lecturess last night. She was warmly greeted by a very large and intelligent audience.

Epizootic has appeared at Jacksonville and Keokuk.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Another silk factory at Paterson failed yesterday, that of E. Wealther & Co., manufacturers of ribbons. Liabilities very heavy.

The city council authorized $500,000 at six per cent twenty year bonds to indemnify property owners for land and buildings on Read and other streets condemned for the St. Louis and Illinois bridge.

NOVA SCOTIA.

HALIFAX, Nov. 27.—Several horses have died here of the distemper.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From Paris.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Thirty members comprise the committee to prepare the necessary reformatory constitutional measures in reply to Thiers' message.

The Cabinet to-day deliberate on the report of the majority of the Committee on Address and Resolution to the Ministry.

Thiers will attend the Assembly to-morrow, when the report of the majority comes up.

The vote of yesterday, postponing the immediate consideration of the report allayed the excitement. Many believe the crisis is passed

Paris is quiet this morning and the provinces are also reported tranquil.

UTAH.

From Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 27.—Several members of the Professor Marsh Yale Scientific party arrived to-day. The Professor himself is at Fort Bridger. Operations for the season have closed.

There is general preparation for the observance of Thanksgiving. Business will be suspended

There has been much excitement here in regard to the fall of Raymond & Ely stock. Numerous Salt Lakers are large holders and heavy losers.

No further developments of the diamond humbug. Prominent citizens of San Francisco are charged with inventing the whole scheme

Mining operations flat.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—The Arizona papers express the belief that the pretended diamond discoveries are a fraud. The Denver Times pronounces Stanton's big ruby a soft garnet, and a very soft one at that. It is in possession of Tucker of this city.

Sailed to-day—ship Sophie, Cork; ship Ringleader and bark Lockett, Liverpool, brig Columbus, Falmouth.

Joseph Hurling, who shot and killed Claskiock last April, in San Mateo county, has been declared insane and sent to Stockton.

The Harbor Commissioners met to-day. It was shown that the State Treasurer refuses to pay the bill of Boobar & Co., $3,900, for tearing up old wharves, till it is examined and authenticated.

Banks will be closed and business generally suspended in the city to-morrow.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—Arrived—ship Alaska, 126 days from Baltimore.

Sailed—ship Richard Robinson, Liverpool; German bark, Androck, Cork.

The office of the Western Union Telegraph Company will be open in this city from 8 to 10 A. M., and 4 to 6 P. M.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

VALLEJO, Nov. 27.—The U. S surveying steamer Hassler has finished the survey of Vallejo harbor, and executed a new chart thereof.

Preparations are being made to celebrate Thanksgiving to-morrow in becoming style

SANTA CRUZ, Nov. 27.—A party of engineers in the employ of the Central Pacific Railroad Company will commence surveying for a railroad line between Watsonville and this place next week.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

ALBANY, Nov. 27.—The great Vivian gave one of his parlor entertainments at Parrish Hall to a good audience this evening. Every one speaks highly of it.

Wheat is going forward in large quantities owing to a slight rise in the market. Dealers are now paying 60 cents.

Civil Service.

The N. Y. Times speaks in high terms of the course of the President in regard to the Philadelphia Postoffice. We clip the following from its editorial article on the subject:

Let it be distinctly understood, that it is not the purpose of civil service reformers to carry their measures to a point where they shall interfere with the legitimate necessities of government by parties. In our country, government can be carried on only by parties. To a certain extent the officers of the Government must change occupants with a change of parties in power. It would be absurd to insist that all posts in the Government should be held irrespective of the opinions of the holders. But when the question arises at what point the lines may be drawn, and where change becomes not only unnecessary but harmful, it is not hard to find a practical, if not a perfect, answer. The Commissioners of the Civil Service draw the line so as to leave out of the operation of the rules presented by them and adopted by the President, the heads of Departments and their immediate assistants and deputies, the diplomatic service, the Judiciary, and the District Attorneys.

But below this line the President's plan is strict. Its essential idea is to base appointment and promotion on merit, and to ascertain merit, first, by competitive examination, and second, by probation; certainly a practical notion, and one which is roughly carried out in every business house, small or great, in the country. It is this fact—the sincere attempt of the President to transact the business of the Government on business principles—which, in our opinion, has made this reform already more popular than a casual observer might think. It is also sure to make it more and more so, and if it should unfortunately ever become a definite issue before the people—which would be an event unspeakably discreditable to Congress—there is no doubt that the whole country could be carried for it with unprecedented unanimity.

THE TERRITORIES.

Ninety-five thousand seals were taken on the Alaska seal islands during the months of June and July.

Judge Jacobs is holding a term of the District court at Port Townsend. There is but little business on the docket.

The big beet at Olympia weighs 44 pounds, but the biggest "beat" in Portland weighs about 144, and he's a dead beat at that.

A Vancouver firm has a contract for furnishing parties in San Francisco with one million five hundred thousand hoop poles during the winter.

Thomas Taylor writes from Walla Walla to his brother, under date of November 18th, that the weather is intensely cold and clear, and the merry sleigh bells are gingling constantly. It takes $5 an hour to make 'em gingle, however.

From present indications it would seem that in the next Legislative Assembly of Washington Territory there will be a Democratic majority of 17 on joint ballot—14 in the House and 3 in the Council. But few similarly complexioned bodies will assemble in the United States this year.

A story reaches the Olympia Courier that the Auditor and his associates in canvassing the votes of Cowlitz county threw out the entire returns of Kalama precinct, numbering some 216 votes. We rather think that a canvassing board which does a thing of that kind goes a little too far. The alleged reason in this case was some informality in the returning officers at Kalama.

The following are the names of officers of the Grand Lodge of Independent Order Good Templars, elected at its annual session held at Boise City, Nov. 19, 1872: L. B. Monson, G. W. C. T.; J. J. Clyde, G. W. Counselor; Mrs. H. Brumback, G. W. V. T; John Upham, G. W. Sec.; J. L. Cleary, G. W. Treas.; M. Eells, G. W. Chap.; F. C. Porter, G. W. Marshal; , G. Deputy Marshal; Herman Jones, G. L. G.; Wm. Gainy, G. O. G.

The Chicago Tribune says the terminus of the Northern Pacific railroad was not settled on the occasion of the recent trip of the President and Directors of the Company to this coast. The same people will have another winter to divide their time between hunting clams and hunting termini. Rumor also says that all the surveyors in the northern part of Idaho Territory have been drawn off with the view of looking towards the Snake river valley as the most practicable route to reach the Columbia river.

The Olympia Courier says: While a party were engaged in catching salmon in North Bay on Saturday last, an enormous panther was discovered in their vicinity, leisurely swimming across from an island to the main land. The party were destitute of any implement wherewith to deal summarily with him, yet the love of adventure prompted a demonstration upon him. One of the gentlemen seized a stick which lay in the boat, to which was attached a sharp point, and with it commenced an onslaught upon him. This had the effect to exasperate the animal, when he turned upon the boat a dilemma unlooked for by the party—causing a situation more easily felt than described. The stick was again resorted to and thrust into the panther's mouth, but his jaws immediately closed upon it and held it so tight that extrication was impossible. Recourse was then had to the aboriginal plan of seizing him by the tail and holding his head under water until death ensued. But in this the party were frustrated as the panther was too heavy, and, wearied with the excitement, the gentlemen were at last obliged to desist and let his majesty go on his way in peace. Upon reaching the shore he turned round, looked benignly back upon his tormentors, then shook himself and slowly made his way up the bluff.

THURSDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 28 1872

The Hull and Boiler Investigation

The San Francisco papers contain extended accounts of the investigation going on in that city of the conduct of the Inspectors of Hulls and of Boilers which has been frequently mentioned in the dispatches The investigation is conducted by the special agent of the Treasury Department It arose from complaints against B H Waterman and C C Bemis United States Inspectors of Hulls and of Boilers in which these officers were accused of wrongfully withholding the certificate from the steamer Olympia and wrongfully issuing certificates to certain other steamers

The Olympia was proposing to run on the route between San Francisco and this city in opposition to the line now running and her owners naturally think this fact had something to do with the refusal of her certificate as they claim she was and is in every respect seaworthy and that she is built and equipped as the law requires She is thus described by the San Francisco Bulletin

The Olympia was built for the Pacific coast without regard to cost her model being intended for both deep water and river navigation She was very much needed in the Oregon trade, and could have made very profitable voyages There is but one line of steamers to Portland and at this season of the year freight is offered beyond the capacity of the steamers For days before the steamers leave a line of drays with goods for Portland is in waiting at the wharf and from the wharf often extend five and six blocks away It is impossible for the steamers to carry it all, and large quantities are left over each trip The Olympia was built by John Englos, Brooklyn, N Y, in 1869 of the best materials and in the best manner The builder makes oath that her frame is sided six inches, made double to the top floors of oak, moulded, 16 inches futtocks of oak and chestnut, and top timbers of hackmatack The frame is diagonally strapped on the outside with American iron, 4 by ½ inches, bolted twice in each frame and securely rivited where they cross each other, also double rivited at the head to a belt strap in size 5 by ¾ inches extending the entire length both sides, and fastened with screw bolts in every frame The oak plank on side were put in 3 inches thick under the bottom and 3½ inches above the turn of the bilge; the ceiling inside of 4 inch yellow pine The plank and ceiling were square, fastened with spikes and Long Island locust treenails, the latter wedged at both ends All the metal fastenings outside, as far up as 2 feet above the water line was copper, and above this galvanized iron She was well furnished with center and side keelsons and bilge strake, and strongly kneed and braced both out side and in, and all most thoroughly fastened

The Bulletin which is far less severe in its criticism of the conduct of the officers than either the Call or Chronicle, adds

This steamer, so admirably constructed, could not get a certificate, and was obliged to lie idly at the wharf, while freight was also waiting for transportation She has already lost two trips and has not yet obtained the necessary papers to enable her to leave port

The Call says that Capt Waterman Inspector of Hulls, when interviewed by the reporter of that paper said "All the statements with regard to this matter at present published in the newspapers are totally incorrect When the investigation is over the whole matter will be laid before the public I decline to say anything further

There are circumstances in connection with the matter that certainly need explanation, unless they themselves are trumped up The charges refer not alone to the refusal to grant a certificate to the Olympia It is alleged that certificates have been granted to the California and other steamers of the old line, when they were not entitled to them The law requires that every steamer shall be provided with an apparatus called a floating anchor, designed to prevent her from floundering in the troughs of the sea, in case the machinery gets out of order, also with steam pipes in the hold to extinguish fires and that each steamer shall have a self registering steam gauge, closed with the "American Seal" to prevent the carrying of more steam than is allowed by her certificate These must be provided before a certificate can lawfully be granted It is charged that the officers issued certificates to the steamers above indicated without these requirements having been complied with

Certain other facts of a less public character, are referred to by persons who are inclined to impute improper motives to the officers, which, if true, would be more or less suggestive

How much truth there is in these charges, either as to the wrongful withholding of the certificate from the Olympia, or as to the wrongful issuing of certificates to other vessels, we have not the means of knowing The commerce of our State however, as well as justice to the parties involved, both accuser and accused, demands that the investigation should be thorough and its results made known to the public

The San Francisco papers contain accounts of the disclosure of a plot alleged to have been concocted by Laura D Fair while in prison awaiting her trial, to take the life of Judge Dwinelle of the District Court It is stated that her meals were brought to her by a Swede or Dane known as Frank Him she induced by much wheedling and fawning to engage to poison the Judge The plan was hers, and the execution to be his He was to accomplish the diabolical purpose by putting poison in the food of the Judge, at a place where the latter sometimes took refreshments The poison was obtained, but the opportunity for its use did not present itself She next suggested that he should go to Judge Dwinelle's residence and ring the bell and when the servant came to the door he would be shown into the sitting room where she said apparently familiar with the premises there was a side board with liquors on it in which the fatal drug might be deposited Frank finally resolved not to do the horrible deed, and he and Mrs Fair afterwards quarreled Some months later he was taken ill and thinking he was going to die, he made a confession of the whole matter He has recovered, however, and still asserts the truthfulness of the story

The troubles which have threatened a revolution in France are not ended The vote which postponed the consideration of the report of the majority of the committee appointed to draw up a reply to the President's message, is thought by some to indicate an equal majority for the Government on the final vote, as the postponement was desired by the Government and opposed by the members of the Right. The Right is composed of Monarchists and Conservative Republicans and the Left of Radicals and those who sympathize in their views, but are inclined to a conservative course Among the last named class President Thiers has been generally set down though the Right seem to regard him as a Radical The difficulty now in hand arose from a violent speech of Gambetta, for which General Changarnier the leader of the Right, asserted the Government was responsible

All but six counties in Washington Territory give McFadden a majority of 35

The Poet of the Sierras

The San Francisco Bulletin of Nov 23 has this for Part IV Joaquin Miller's Isle of the Amazons published in the December number of the Overland Monthly

We have the usual prism original and characteristic though an echo of the same protest against society and the same longing for nature which pervaded all prior poems as it pervades much of the author's writings This picture of the South American tropical river rounded by peaks is in paragraph

> The rivers run [illegible]
> [illegible]
> The [illegible]
> What [illegible]
> That rival man in mortal deeds
> The snow [illegible]
> A d [illegible] the still abode of stars
> Tis [illegible] snowy air [illegible]
> [illegible]
> And cord [illegible] with crooked hands
> The ruddy [illegible] of the lands

The poet continues to speak in the first person even after the narrative measure begins expressing contempt for his critics and doubting

> I but sing for the love of song and the glow
> Wh l ved me first and let al love and lost
> The storm of yesterday! Lo its past
> For never were clouds but the sun came through
> Yea, men may rifle and the thing it is well
> Turn well and aside from the one wild note
> To the song of the bird with the tired sweet throat
> But the sea sings on in his cave and shell
> Let the white moons ride and the red stars fall
> O great sweet sea O fearful and sweet
> Your songs they repeat and repeat and repeat
> And these I say shall survive us all

Very little progress is made in the narrative The knight disguised as a woman still tunes the reed to forbidden songs of love, which breed a sweet melancholy among the Amazons they know not why He is disturbed by the beautiful spectacle of their free life their bathing their slumber

> He pressed four fingers against each lid
> Till the light was gone; yet for all that he did,
> It seemed that the lithe forms lay and sat
> Afloat in his face and full under his feet
> He seemed to see the beautiful breasts,
> And the rounded limbs and the pure unrests—
> To see them swim as the mermaids swim
> With the drifting dimpled dolphin limbs
> Folded and hidden in robes of hair
> While fishes of gold shot here and there
> Below their breasts and above their feet
> Like birds in a marvelous garden of sweets
> It seems to me there is more than seen
> Than the eyes in rising you may close your eyes
> You may turn your back and may still be wise
> In the sacred and marvelous mysteries

He flies to the woods and sings alone melodies sad and sweet but not of love The Queen of the Amazons evinces a peculiar sympathy with this plaintive singer

> But still he pined and he pined in despair
> And she wept in her heart of hearts for him
> With the sea blue eyes and the brown silk hair
> Till her soul grew heavy and her eyes grew dim
> To the fair delights of her own fair isles
> She turns her face to the stranger again
> And she cheered with song and allured with smiles
> But cheered, and allured and soothed in vain
> Then she too paired and pined with a grief
> That grew from her pity she forgot her arms
> And she made neglect of the battle alarms
> That threatened the land The banana's leaf
> Made shelter he lifted his harp again
> She sat and she listened intently and long
> Forgetting her cares and forgetting her pain—
> Made sad for the singer made glad by his song
> The year waxed old; the white moons waned,
> The brown Queen marshaled her hosts no more
> With sword and shield in psalms by the shore
> But they sat them down to repose or remained
> Apart and dispersed mid the tropic leaved trees—
> As, saddened by song or for love's dull sad
> Away in the isles in couples they strayed
> Not at all content in their land of peace
> Or they wandered away to the lake once more
> Or walked in the moon or they sighed or slept
> Or they sat in pairs by the lily ebb
> And silent moon with the waters kept
> They forgot their temple that blazed and shone
> Built up to the sun on the westernmost shore
> With its front of gold and its golden door
> That opened to the sun and the sun alone.

Perhaps the finest passage in this installment of the poem is the following

> There was one who stood still by the waters one eve
> With the stars on her hair and the bars of the moon
> Broken up at her feet by the wonderful boon
> Of extending our dresses who did questioning grieve
> "The birds they go over us two and by two
> The mono is mated his bride in the boughs
> Sits nursing his ire and his passionate vows
> Of love you may hear them the whole day through
> "The lizard the cayman and the white-toothed bear,
> The serpent that glides in the sword leafed grass
> The beasts that abide or the birds that pass
> They love and are loved while we but despair
> "There is nothing that is that can yield one bliss
> Like an innocent lover the lovers have tongues
> And the tides talk low in the reeds and the young
> And the quick buds open their lips but for this
> "In the steep and the starry silences
> On the stormy levels of limitless seas
> Or here in the deep of the dark browed trees
> There is nothing so much as a brave man's kiss
> "There is nothing so a song in the stream on the land
> In the valleys of palms on the pitnacled snow
> In the clouds of the gods on the grasses below
> As the silk soft touch of a baby's brown hand
> It were better to sit and to sigh on a stone
> For the whole year through with a babe at the knee,
> With its brown hands reaching caressingly
> Than to sit in a girdle of gold and alone
> "It were better I think to bear with the frowns
> Of unmannerly men as laden with spoil
> From the intricate wood and bended with toil,
> We return to our beautiful babes by the towns
> Than with life like to this where never the brown
> Sweet hand of a babe hides back in the hair
> When the mother returns with her burden of care
> And over the life of her life bends down
> "It were better perhaps to be mothers of braves
> And to murmur not much there are clouds in the sun
> Let them wrong if they will they alone are undone
> And the shame shall be theirs if their mothers be slaves.

Sidney E Morse & Co publishers of the New York Observer, announce the closing up of the first fifty years trial of that journal and the commencement of the next fifty with a commemoration volume called the Jubilee Year Book as a present to each subscriber The list of subscribers is said to be larger than ever before Such a steady course of prosperity inspires confidence We heartily rejoice in the great success of a paper which has always advocated those sound principles that underlie the foundations of society and good government Orthodox in the truest sense, both in church and State, its influence is always conservative The religious, family newspaper is always a conservator of public and private morals

The New York Herald's correspondent has undertaken to interview Senator Trumbull, in order to ascertain the future policy of the Liberals Trumbull was just leaving his home for a week's absence and disposed of his visitor by saying I can not grant the interview If it were otherwise convenient I should hardly be willing to go before the country on public questions till we are further removed from the excitement of the late canvass and the people are in a frame of mind more calmly to consider the future

The New York Herald of November 14th says Arkansas has been carried by the Republicans by 15 000 Of course this result is charged to have been achieved by fraudulent means

The Boston Statesman gives currency to the following, in the form of a Washington dispatch of November 13th

A proposition is being entertained by the Treasury Department for remodelling the National Banking law and in some particulars the plan meets with favor on the part of the Secretary as a step toward the resumption of specie payments in the shortest possible time It is suggested that national bank notes shall be called in and legal tenders issued in lieu thereof and instead of the banks receiving 90 per cent on their bonds deposit ed as at present they are to receive 100 per cent in legal tenders The banks are to keep on hand certain amount of specie, to be increased from time to time until such period as specie payments can be conveniently resumed by the Government and the banks That this or a similar scheme will be laid before Congress and perhaps recommended by the Secretary of the Treasury is quite positively believed and asserted

The Sacramento Union of the 19th instant says Gilbert Munger the artist has just returned from the Shoshone country where he experienced the various sensations allied to the dodging of brawny braves and the pencilling of sketches Mr Munger was in Olympia a few weeks ago

Railway Litigation —A Denver, Colorado dispatch of November 14th says

In the District Court to day, a decision was rendered in the cases of the Kansas Pacific Railroad against the Union Pacific Railroad for $1 000 000 damages and to restrain the Union Pacific from discriminating against the Kansas Pacific Road The pleading of the Union Pacific Company in the first case that this court had no jurisdiction without their voluntary appearance was overruled by Judge Wells but their pleading of impropriety in the summons in the second case was sustained and the case dismissed

Ordinance No 1255

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of College street lying between Fourth and Fifth streets

The city of Portland does ordain as follows

Section 1 The proposed improvement of that part of College street lying between the center of Fifth street and the west side of Fourth street shall be completed as hereinafter provided on or before the 1st day of January 1873

Section 2 The surface of the street shall be cleared of all plank timbers or other obstacles or perishable materials (sidewalks of the proper width and cistern covers excepted) If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots within three days from the service of notice by the Street Commissioner they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor

Section 3 The improvement shall consist of grading wholly covering the roadway and intersections with plank, and putting in box gutters in the intersections

Section 4 The grading shall be such as to present a uniform surface for the planking to rest upon with which it shall be in contact at every point

Section 5 The bottom plank of the gutter shall be sixteen inches wide the curb and the outside stringer shall form the sides the outside stringer shall be set edgewise, and be of such width as to extend to the bottom of the gutter planks to which it shall be securely spiked

The center stringer shall be twelve inches wide; there shall be three stringers eight inches wide laid at equal distances apart between the center stringer and each outside stringer The covering plank shall be not less than eight nor more than twelve inches wide All plank and stringers used in the improvement shall be four inches thick

The planking of the center line of the street shall be on grade at the intersection, and the planking shall be four inches below grade as near as may be with a gradual slope to the cross street or cross-walk

Section 6 On the intersection with the cross street the planking shall be laid as follows

Commencing at a point three feet from the side line of the street and parallel therewith the planking for a distance of six feet shall extend from the center of the street or cross-street across the gutter to the curb on the grade or as near thereto as practicable to serve as cross walks The planking outside of the line above named at all slope to the planking of the street between the blocks and conform thereto

Between the lines of the cross walks the planking eight feet each side of the center line of the street or cross street shall be laid on the grade

At the gutters on a line from the center of the street to the corner of the sixteen feet flat roadway above described the top of the plank shall be two inches below grade and slope upwards to the cross walk and plank roadway

On the south side of the intersections the gutters shall be twenty four inches wide and not less than six inches deep in the clear

The covering plank shall form the top the sides serve as sleepers and the bottom plank securely spiked thereto

The stringers shall be eight inches wide and in no case more than six feet apart

CITY.

A MUCH NEEDED WORK.—Every year the water which descends on the summit and along the sides of Robinson Hill collects in large quantities at the base and deluges the adjacent grounds. All the water which falls on the eastern and northern declivity of the hill is thus accumulated upon a large area of ground, and precipitated on that portion of the city contiguous to the base. Just north of Robinson Hill, a deep cut or gulch separates a wooded height from the main eminence, and leads directly down to the city. This gulch brings down daily, thousands of gallons of water during the winter, which flood the streets. Many of the streets extending east and west, each year are fearfully washed out every winter, and placed in an impassable condition. Repairs must necessarily follow each spring and summer, the ravages of the flood of each winter. In the absence of a regular system of sewerage, the accumulations of water instead of being conveyed away to the river in an underground conduit, traverse the surface and washes away and carries off the soil. As yet no effective remedy has been devised to prevent this recurring damage to the streets, and inconvenience to travel. At length it was determined to cut a deep ditch which was to extend in the limits the entire base of Robinson Hill. Some weeks ago a gang of men were set to work to accomplish this much needed improvement, under the supervision of the Street Commissioner. The greater portion of the distance to be ditched, has already been passed and a few more weeks will suffice to complete the job. When finished the whole distance of the cut will be nearly 3 000 feet. The ditch commences at a point near the foot of the wooded hills, some distance south of the Canyon Road. It winds along conforming in course to the general outline of the hills to the west. In some places the cut is at the immediate base of the hills, and in others it ascends the declivity several yards above. The ditch is several feet wide, and varied in depth from two to five feet, owing to the character of the ground. The object of the canal is to intercept all the water which falls above, collect it and carry it away to some general point of escape, where the accumulations can be carried away to the river and commit no damage in its progress. The ditch is nearly finished, and as winter is nearly at hand it is to be hoped that the good effects of this judicious improvement will soon be experienced. Millions of gallons of water can thus be diverted from traveling through the principal streets of the city on its way to the river.

ESCAPED DESTRUCTION.—The recent conflagration at Oregon City, although destroying much property, might have resulted much more disastrously to the town had not the weather at the time the fire occurred, proved unfavorable to the spread of the flames. No wind of any consequence was stirring except that which such a fire would create. Another great advantage against the further communication of the flames, existed in the fact that the roofs of all the buildings were coated to a depth of one fourth of an inch or more, with ice and sleet. The house-tops were covered with live coals cast out from the burning mass; but the ice effectually shielded the shingles and extinguished the fire before the coating had fairly thawed. It is the general opinion that if the rain had not frozen as it fell, and any wind had been blowing at the time, no earthly power could have averted a sweeping and disastrous conflagration. Some idea can be formed of the danger to which the town was exposed, when it is known that live coals of fire were carried full half a mile away from the scene of the fire. The banks of Abernethy creek for some distance, is lined with coals and ashes.

NOBLY RESPONDED.—Two gentlemen of the city, whose names we omit by request, engaged yesterday a large two horse express wagon, and called upon our merchants, business men, grocers, etc., for donations in behalf of charity. The object of such donations was for the benefit of the inmates of the "Home." In the course of half a day nearly a ton of various articles was collected. The donations consisted of groceries of all kinds, meats, articles of clothing, etc. In addition the sum of $62 in coin was collected. When these gentlemen had concluded their Good Samaritan labor, a small portion of the articles collected was left at the county and city jails for the benefit of the inmates. The money collected was turned over to the Treasurer of the Ladies' Relief Society, and the provisions to the President of that Society. The provisions collected will enable the unfortunate inmates of the "Home" to have a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner, and supply their wants for some time to come, in addition.

STEAM PUMPS AND BOILER.—On the last steamer there arrived two large steam pumps which will be used on the steamer Annie Stewart. Also the new boiler will soon be received here. The boiler is of the most substantial and powerful workmanship, and combines all the latest improvements known to that particular branch of business. The head of the boiler will be constructed in a concave form, with the concavity protruding on the inside. This will impart an additional strength to the resisting power of the iron, and will allow the boiler to carry, with perfect safety, a greater pressure of steam than the ordinarily constructed steam generators. In this respect the owners of the Annie Stewart will have no superior on the coast. Meantime the owners of this fine boat are having her put in the best possible trim to receive the new machinery, and to assume any route which may hereafter be designated.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—Most of the churches of this city have, for several years past celebrated the Thanksgiving festival by meeting in one of their respective houses of worship, and joining in a common service. To day they will assemble in the Congregational Church at 11 o'clock A M. The Thanksgiving discourse will be delivered by Dr. Atkinson, and in the other exercises he will be assisted by pastors of the other churches. At the close, a collection will be taken to replenish the treasury of the Ladies' Home, a charity of unspeakable benefit to the poor and "the ..." to which benevolent ladies of Portland are devoting much time, labor and expense. Its support rests entirely upon the charities of the public. Let there be a rousing Thanksgiving collection.

MACHINERY ENLARGED.—At the time the bark ... was blown ashore at the head of Sauvie's Island, some days ago, the tug Ben Holladay had her in tow. By some means one of the propellers was broken when the bark went ashore. Since that time the tug has been carrying light loads in consequence of running with one propeller. Two new propellers have been cast at one of the foundries, each four feet and seven inches in diameter, and having three flukes. This will materially augment the power of the tug. The present driving power of the engines is deemed too small for the dimensions of the new propellers, and larger and more powerful, engines will soon be built and attached to the tug.

NEARLY RUN OVER.—Last Tuesday evening about ... o'clock a man was discovered lying on the railroad track in East Portland at its intersection with L street. The fellow was in a condition of unconscious intoxication. He had stumbled and fallen while staggering along in the dark, and was too drunk to realize the danger of his position. The man who found him stretched across the rails, after a good deal of shaking and ...ing, succeeded in rousing the stupid inebriate, and ... inducing him to repair to a place of safety. Locomotives are passing at all hours of the night up to 12 o'clock, and inevitable death would have been the fate of the fellow had he not been timely discovered.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—To day is Thanksgiving, and all kinds of business will be more or less suspended. Clerks, merchants, bankers, mechanics and laborers, will be allowed a day's respite from labor. The telegraphic operators of this city, propose to appropriate to their own use a sufficient amount of time to discuss the usual Thanksgiving turkey, and test the quality of the plum pudding and dessert. In consequence, the office will not be open all day for the transaction of business. Dispatches will be received and delivered from 8 to 11 A M, and 4 to 8 P. M.

SOON TO OPEN.—Should the present weather continue it is the expectation of the Canal and Lock Company to have the locks completed by the 15th of next month. The masonry work will be finished in the course of a week, and the remainder of the wood work will soon be completed thereafter. All the gates have been made except one, and a large force of men are engaged at work on the last. Unless some unavoidable delay should occur, boats will be able to pass through the locks by the first of next year.

NO PAPER.—This being Thanksgiving Day, the proprietors, manager and compositors propose to take a holiday, so as to be able to return thanks for past and present favors, and pay their respects to the turkeys. Our patrons and readers will not be favored to-morrow morning with the visitation of THE OREGONIAN.

LOST HER VOICE.—The steamer Rescue by some strange mishap lost her voice yesterday morning. This is about equivalent to saying that she broke her whistle, and per consequence the "slumbering echoes," as poet and rhapsodists would musically say, were not awakened as the boat touched at the several points along the river. A new whistle will take the place of the old cracked one, and the of recall "slumbering echoes" can rest assured that their nap will be of short duration.

MORE LOGS.—The demand for lumber in this city must be immense, if the number of logs towed up from points down the river, to the several saw mills of the city, can be taken as an indication. Every few days logs to the amount of a half million feet of lumber, arrive here from the logging camp below. The tug Varuna is now down the river bringing an immense raft to some of the lumbering establishments.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—The Advocate says: The Teachers' Association of the Taylor Street Sunday School voted on Tuesday evening to have a Christmas Tree, and appointed a large committee to look after it. They also appointed a committee to make arrangements for suitable exercises in celebrating the twenty fifth anniversary of the organization of the school.

PREVAILING.—We are informed that there are now a number of cases of scarlet fever in the city, confined principally to children. Influenza, or as it is facetiously called "epizootic," now prevails extensively in the city. We hear of its existence in many places. So prevalent is this disorder that nearly 40 pupils of the public schools of the city are unable to attend.

ARRIVAL OF ORIFLAMME.—The steamer Oriflamme arrived at port yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock from San Francisco. She sailed last Saturday morning. The passage was moderately fair and pleasant, some head winds being encountered on the voyage. The Oriflamme brought a small passenger list, and about 500 tons of assorted cargo.

NEW PAPER.—Material for a job and newspaper office arrived on the last steamer from San Francisco. A new journal is soon to be issued at Walla Walla by Mr. J. W. Ragsdale, who also arrived from below last evening. The new claimant for public favor will be called The Spirit of the West, and will advocate Republican principles.

TROOPS.—The steamer Oriflamme brought up ninety one United States troops from San Francisco. These troops have been transferred from below to the garrison at Vancouver and Fort Stevens. Immediately on the arrival of the steamer at the wharf the Vancouver came along side and took the men and baggage away.

TAXES.—County taxes on the rolls of 1872 are now due at the office of the Sheriff. That officer in conformity with the requirements of the law, commenced last Monday to visit the various precincts of the county, and afford all tax payers an opportunity of calling at the designated places and paying their county dues.

MORE MACHINERY.—Another invoice of heavy machinery arrived on the last steamer from San Francisco, belonging to the North Pacific Railroad Company. The machinery is to be used at the Company's machine shops at Kalama, and will be forwarded to that place without delay.

TRACK CHANGED.—The Oregon Central Railroad track near the foot of G street has been moved over several rods from its original position. The track has been changed over toward the former site of the old saw mill, and the ground where the track was first laid has been leveled off.

TOWED DOWN.—The Dixie Thompson towed the ship Zouave down yesterday from below the St. Helens Bar to Astoria. The cargo of that vessel is nearly finished. Everything will be in readiness in a few days, and the Zouave will sail for her destination—Liverpool.

DRAGGING FOR THE BODY.—Several parties have been engaged in dragging the slough where the unfortunate Michael Cashler was drowned a few days ago, but with little success. Not the slightest traces of the body have been discovered at the last account.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—A. B. Richardson sold at public auction yesterday lot 6 in block 6, for the sum of $4,500, cash down. The purchasers were Smith Bros. This property is situated on First street, directly opposite the foundry owned by the purchasers.

CHARTERED.—The ship Victoria Nyanza is under charter to Messrs. Hewitt, Wilson & Co., and the ship Channel Light under charter to Messrs Rogers, Meyers & Co., of this city. Both vessels are now in the river and will carry wheat to the United Kingdom.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—Divine service will be held this day at St Stephens' Chapel, Madison street, near Fourth, at 11 o'clock, on which occasion the Rt Rev. Bishop Morris will preach the sermon. Seats free.

OBSERVED.—Thanksgiving Day will be duly observed by services and a discourse in the Unitarian Church this morning at 11 o'clock. A respectful invitation is extended to the usual congregation and to the public.

REWARD OFFERED.—Mr R. Jacob, President of the Oregon City Woolen Mills, offers a reward of $2,000 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who set fire to the mills last Saturday morning.

SECOND LECTURE.—"The Social Evil and Christianity" will constitute the subject for the second lecture of Mrs Duniway at the Theater next Sunday evening. Speaking will commence at 7 30 o'clock.

PETITION TO OPEN.—We learn that the tax-payers of East Portland are signing a petition to be presented to the Board of Trustees praying that body to open Water street preparatory to its improvement.

MISSIONARY CONCERT.—The regular Missionary Concert will be held in the Taylor Street M E Church next Sunday afternoon. The exercises on the occasion are of an unusually interesting character.

CLEARING THE ROOF.—Several persons were engaged yesterday in clearing the roof of the Steamship Company's dock, from accumulations of coal from the stacks of the old saw mill.

ONE HOUR.—To day being National Holiday, the delivery window of the post office will only be opened one hour after the arrival of the Southern mail.

AT KALAMA.—The brig Perpetua is now at Kalama discharging iron. She brought a cargo for the Northern Pacific Railroad.

NON JUDICIAL.—There will be no business of any character transacted to day in the Courts, this being a non judicial day.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Thanksgiving Day.

Rub up your skates.

Don't forget your overcoat.

Several parties and balls to night.

The wind howled around the wharves last night.

On the tapis—a velocipede race on the newly planked Fourth street.

The St Charles Hotel was closed yesterday. It will be re opened this evening under a new proprietorship.

We are ready to receive copies of "The Beautiful Snow," with request to "publish and oblige many readers," etc.

The steamers Orizaba and Pacific formerly on the line between this city and San Francisco, are now running between that city and San Diego, Cal.

Our reporter of historical facts being out of town, the young man of the Herald will be considerably relieved in consequence of the absence of "brevs" gotten up by our absent friend.

Electricity has recently been successfully applied to the breaking in of horses. A wire was attached to the bit, and as soon as the animal showed signs of becoming refractory, a shock was given which soon restored order.

The old saying is: "What everybody says must be true," and everyone says that Beck & Waldman have the largest and best selected stock of the latest styles and patterns in gentlemen's Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the city of Portland. They have the largest variety of Boy's, Youth's, and Children's Suits, all which will be sold according to the times. Please call and satisfy yourself that we will not be undersold by anyone.

COMMON COUNCIL.

REGULAR MEETING NOV 27, 1872.

The Common Council of the city of Portland met pursuant to ordinance, His Honor Mayor Wasserman presiding.

Present—Councilmen Besser, Burton, Congle, Hallock Russell and Story.

Absent—Councilmen Caywood, Hill and Moreland.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

REPORTS

The Select Committee, to whom was referred a certain bill, reported unfavorable to its payment and the report was adopted.

The Committee on Streets and Public Property reported favorably on the system of sewerage for the city as proposed by W. E. Morris, C E. Report adopted.

The City Attorney reported that certain cases pending between the city and property owners were now before the Circuit Court on appeal.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY

The following bills against the city were ordered paid: Corbett, Failing & Co, $5 50; J L Cline, $12. The bill of Hurgren & Shindler for $3 was laid on the table for one week.

ORDINANCES.

An ordinance making an appropriation out of the Police Building Fund to the General Fund, was read a first and second time, rule suspended, ordinance read a third time and passed.

An ordinance transferring $2,000 from the General Fund to the Police Fund, read twice, rules suspended, ordinance read a third time and passed.

An ordinance transferring certain sums from the General Fund to special funds, read a first and second time, rules suspended, ordinance read a third time and passed.

An ordinance estimating the cost of improving that part of North Second street, lying between E and G streets, read first and second time, rule suspended, ordinance read a third time and passed.

An ordinance defining the duties and fixing the salary of the City Surveyor, was read the third time and passed.

MISCELLANEOUS.

On motion, the bill of W. E. Morris for services as Civil Engineer, in making and drawing plan for sewerage, $500, was ordered paid.

On motion, the bills of J. H. Lappeus, $529, the Portland Railway Company, $326 12, and the City Surveyor and assistants, $387 60, were also ordered paid.

On motion, the Council adjourned.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Turn Verein will hold a grand ball at Philharmonic Hall on the evening of the 20th of December.

Mrs F. M. Bates is playing in Salt Lake City. She will return to San Francisco in two weeks to resume an engagement at the Metropolitan Theater.

To night, "Diavola, or Hunted Down," will be presented for the first time at Oro Fino Theater to-night for the first time. It is said to abound in many exciting situations.

Miss Edith O'Gorman will repeat her last lecture at the new Masonic Hall this evening. The proceeds will be applied to the benefit of the First Lutheran Church of this city.

In consequence of the counter attractions, last evening, the attendance at Oro Fino Theater was rather light. The great tragedy of "Othello" was rendered. Each character was faithfully and artistically represented. Mr. Waldron appeared as the jealous Moor. The other members of the Company assumed the various characters assigned the various characters assigned them in the role.

The ball given last evening at the Armory, by the members of the Emmet Guard, was one of the successful affairs of the season. The large hall was crowded, so densely that dancing was rendered almost unpleasant for want of room. Participants appeared to enjoy themselves finely, at the "heel and toe" exercise, while the splendid music lent zest and animation to the occasion. The dancing was continued until an early hour this morning.

Philharmonic Hall presented an animated appearance last evening at the social party given by the members of Eureka Encampment No 1, C of R. C. The attendance was very fair, and the music provided for the occasion excellent. The hall was tastily and handsomely decorated with the emblems of the Order, which served to lend a grotesqueness to the scene, pleasant to the eye. Dancing was prolonged to a late hour, and the participants dispersed well satisfied with the evening's enjoyment.

PERSONAL.

Col Thomas Monteith, of Albany, called last evening.

Mr A. J. Burr, Postmaster at Olympia, is now in the city.

Brig Gen M. V. Brown, of the Albany Democrat is now in the city. He afforded us the pleasure of a call last evening.

Hon. W. W. Bristow, State Senator from Lane county, is in the city. He gave us the pleasure of a call yesterday. He says the Republicans are resolved to keep Lane county, now they have got it away from the opposition; and with such Republicans as Senator Bristow, to resolve is to act. So we think they will hold it.

DON'T READ THIS.—Be sure to get some of those fine Thanksgiving Turkeys or Geese exhibited at W. Aschenheim's, Washington Market, and at his branch, No. 140 First street one door below Taylor, where you will find the most complete assortment of Game, Poultry and Fish.

ABOUT the epizootics, the Boston fire, the firemen's election and the cold weather much has been said. The cold weather has induced many to prepare in one way or another some provision to carry them in a comfortable manner through the winter. Gentlemen and youths have in view a new suit of clothes, an overcoat, or something in the way of undershirts, or other winter wear. Messrs J. O Neil & Co., 85 First street, are fully prepared to supply those wanting any of the latter articles with promptness, and at prices not calculated to diminish your cash account materially.

SUMMER has forsaken us, and winter with its chilly winds and freezing blasts has given us the first notice of its presence, and we have begun to prepare for its rigors. Gentlemen desiring to be clad seasonably now have the opportunity of procuring winter suits or garments, either ready made or put up to order in a style that cannot be excelled in any respect. The stock of Fishel & Roberts is so large that little trouble is experienced in selecting cloths. The sales of overcoats the past few days have been large, and the rush continues. Prices favorable.

To protect the understanding of humanity, nothing there is like leather fastened together by CABLE SCREW WIRE. Boots and Shoes made in this way never rip, or leak, or come apart.

A protruding toe is not a sightly thing, say nothing about health and comfort. SILVER-TIPPED Shoes never wear out at the toe. For sale by all dealers.

Humbug Dissected.

Quaint old Burton has favored us with an "Anatomy of Melancholy," but why shall dissect the melancholy fallacies and fibs with which knaves and fanatics endeavor to delude the sick and feeble of this generation. Charlatans through the newspaper press, recommend to the strengthless victim of disease convulsing purgatives, which, if taken, are sure to turn his debilitated system almost inside out, and sink him into the uttermost depths of helplessness and despondency! Fanatics, on the other hand, assure the prostrate patient that no medicine containing a diffusive stimulant ought to pass his lips. If he elects to be guided by the advice of imposters and lunatics, let him make his will and order his coffin; but if there is a spark of common sense in his composition, let him resort in his extremity to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most potent of vegetable tonics and alteratives, the purest and most entirely wholesome of medicated stimulants. The wonderful cures of dyspepsia, biliousness, rheumatism, physical prostration and malarious fevers which this rare specific has effected during the last twenty-two years, are the most conclusive answers that can be given to the enemies of mankind who offer volcanic cathartics as tonics, and to the mistaken beings who would refuse a medicinal stimulant to a poor, broken-down invalid, who is literally dying by inches for the want of judicious stimulation. Temperance, properly understood, countenances no such folly as this. The laws enacted to put down the abhorrent vice of drunkenness provide for the sale of brandy, whisky and other liquors as medicines, and if these adulterated liquors of trade are accepted by temperance legislators as remedies what ought to be the general verdict of the temperance public as regards the peerless vegetable tonic based upon a stimulant absolutely pure?

PLANTATION BITTERS!
S. T.—1860—X.
This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

THE RESULT—PETROLEUM INDULGES IN A PROLONGED WAIL.

[From the Toledo Blade.]

CHAPPAQUA,
(Wich is in the State uv Noo York,)
November 7, 1872.

I hev heerd the news! Grant is elected. I acknowledge it. He is the most elected candidate I ever hed any knowledge uv. He is so much elected that the other candidate's vote might very properly be put under the head uv scatterin.

The great and good Gr——, which is to say, that sodden old ass Greeley, is profoundly effected—more so than I am. He isn't so much used to bein beaten ez I am, and then he hezent the philosophy to endoor it. He really hed a noshen that he wuz agoin to be elected. He knowd, he sed, that he hed agin him the trained cohorts uv oppression, but he never feared. There wuz the people. He depended onto the people and the Triboon. He felt that he hed personal strength, and he hed given it full course to be developed. He hed showd hisself everywhere. No matter about the result in October. In October he wuz embarresed by lokle tickets. Objectionable men hed ben put upon tickets which weakened em. But now that the contest wuz narrered down to him and Grant he hed no doubt uv the result. He hed no doubt that he hed carried Ohio, Injiana, Illinois, Noo Hampsheer, Connecticut, shoor, and ez for Noo York, he wished he hed ez many dollars ez he'd carry Noo York. The only thing that troubled him now wuz the formation uv a cabinet.

And the old loonatic meandered on in this sort uv style till the telegraph come in short and broke his dream. Ohio come fust Pennsylvany next, Injeany, Illinois, Michigan, Connecticut, Noo Hampsheer, each a staggerin blow. I will not dwell on the harrowin scene. We put him weepin to bed at 2 A. M., and I immejitly packed my trunk, puttin into it, in a fit uv absent-mindedness to which I am subject, sich loose articles uv clothing and sich as happened to be layin around loose. I shel hev yoose for everythin g I kin capcher.

I wuz in a most depressed condishen uv mind, and while in that state writ the followin, wich may be of some comfort to the Democracy who hed longin eyes on post offices and sich. It wuz an outgush uv a broken heart.

A PSALM OF DESPAIR.

Life is a dream, hope a delooshen, and expectashen a snare.

Man goeth out in his strength and boasteth wat he will do—he returneth scooped, with his tail-feathers dragglin in the dust.

Wat is man that he shood take pride to hisself—wat is the son uv man that he elevateth his horn?

The ox nips grass and provideth not for it—the horse wanteth not the Postoffis that he may live.

The coney be a feeble folk, but his habits are simple, and he needeth not small change for drinks.

Weeping I wail and wailing I weep.

Mine eyes are artesian wells, wich spouteth brine continually.

In the wilderness abide I—there is no comfort in life.

For the great and good Greeley is beaten and my hopes are bustid.

I turned me to Ohio and Ohio ansers "Grant."

To Injeany we held out our hands and Injeany sez "Grant."

Illinois we implored and Pennsylvany we entreated, but Illinois and Pennsylvany both say "Grant."

October wuz pizen, but November is pizener.

As November is colder than October, so is the woe wich is on us now worse than the woe we encountered then.

We offered em Greeley but they lafft at us.

We took Greeley to our hearts and sed, "Lo we are like him."

We whitewashed Seymour and Blair, and Breckenridge we painted four coats.

And we said we are no longer uv the tribe uv Bookannon, we be even as yoo are, only more so. But the people flouted and jeered.

The Democrats rose in wrath sayin: Ef I must hev a Republiken, give me Grant and not Greeley.

The Republiken sed: Lo Greeley may be a Republiken, but his surroundings are not pleasant to the smell. He is with Blair and Seymour. Kin a man tetch pitch and not be defiled? And he voted for Grant.

Hed we got the Democrats we shood hev spoiled the enemy.

Hed we got the Republikens, we shood hev conkered and then the camp wood hev bin ours. But we got neither uv them.

And the postoffices are theirs, and the Custom Houses likewise.

The Postmaster will rise merrily in the morn and draw his pay, but he shel not be one of us.

The Assessor shel warble ez he pouches his pay, but we shel not warble, for pay we shel draw not.

The Custom-house officer shel hev horses and chariots, and men servants, but we shel be in rags and shel go on foot.

A vision rises before me.

Lubbock, whose skin is the color uv noo molasses, keeps the postoffis at the Corners.

Pollock will be Assessor and will vex the righteous.

I shel go back with my throat parched, and without the wherewith to buy an assuager.

I shel go to Bascom and shel say, "Give me, I pray thee, to drink."

And Bascom shel harden his heart and stiffen his neck, and shel say, "Likker is cash."

His bottles shel be filled with new whisky and old Bourbon shel he hev in his casks, but I shel be continually dry.

His bottles shel gurgle, but the gurgle thereof shel not be for me, but for the stranger within his gates.

Like the lime-kiln shel my throat be—like the great desert.

And Pogram and Pennibacker, who wuz to hev stood at the receet uv customs, will hev to go to work.

With their hands they will hev to labor, or they will hev nought to eat.

Life in Kentucky will be uv no avail, for the monotony thereof will be a burden.

The niggers will vote in peace, and their heads we will not dare to bust.

There will be factories at the Corners and school-houses will abound.

There will be school marms with ringlets, and nigger children shel read.

Railroads will be built and the men uv the North will come among us, and we shel be driven out.

The sound uv the revolver will be no more heard in all the land and the shot-gun will rust.

Maine likker laws will be passed, and the bowel enlivener will be no more poured out.

For Democracy is dead, its chips hez it passed in.

Bookannon it endoored, McClellan it stood Seymour it survived, but Greeley wuz too many for it and it died the death.

We sed to Greeley, "Lo, we are weak carry us." And he answered, saying, "I will" and strateway climbed upon our shoulders.

Wat cood bear such a burden—wat cood carry so great a load and live.

He hed no strength, and no strength had we—we tried to carry each other, and we flounder in the ditch by the wayside.

Shood the foolish man ask me, Lo, which wuz the weakest, Greeley or the Democracy? I shood say Go to—it is a conundrum—I give it up.

The jimpson wood falleth in the autumn, but cometh up in the spring, but we hev fallen, and we shel never rise agin, for we are dead at the root, and the seed is rotten in the pod.

Sampson's hare wuz shingled, and he wuz weak, but it growd agin and he wuz strong.

But ours will not grow agin, for we hev none to grow. Our enemies hev snatched us baldheaded.

Now let me die, for the waters of woe encompasseth me.

We played our left-bower and our king, but lo, our enemy held the right-bower and the ace; to a four-flush drawed we, but we did not fill, and no stamps hed we to raise em out.

We are cleaned out and nary a stake have we left.

The treasury will be safe, the tax gatherer will live, the debt shel be paid, and we shel gnash our teeth.

For Grant shel reign, and Boutwell and Fish and Sherman shel hold up his hands.

The repeaters shel languish for the law shel be strong, and the Kuklux shel hunt their holes.

Life is a dream—hope a delooshen, and Greeley a snare. Let us die and be at peace.

The San Juan Boundary Decision.

The following official documents have been forwarded to the English papers for publication from the Foreign Office.

LORD ODO RUSSELL TO EARL GRANVILLE.

[Received Oct. 28.]

BERLIN, Oct. 23, 1872—112 P. M.

MY LORD:—I have the honor to transmit herewith to your Lordship, by Admiral Provost, the decision and award of the Emperor of Germany respecting the true interpretation of the treaty of June 15, 1846, which, in accordance with the thirty-fifth article of the Treaty of Washington, is given in writing, signed by His Majesty, and dated on the 21st inst., and is forwarded to me by M. de Balan, in a letter dated to day, the 23d inst., which has just been delivered at this Embassy. I have, &c.,

(Signed,) ODO RUSSELL.

M. BALAN TO LORD ODO RUSSELL.

[Translation.]

His Imperial and Royal Majesty having, in accordance with the Treaty of Washington of May 8, 1871, given his royal award in the boundary question at issue between Great Britain and the United States, the undersigned has the honor herewith to transmit to his Excellency, Her Britannic Majesty's Ambassador, Lord Odo Russell, the award in writing, informing him at the same time that a similar document has been forwarded to the Envoy of the United States at this Court. The undersigned, &c.,

(Signed,) BLAIN.

[Translation.]

We, William, by the grace of God, German Emperor, King of Prussia, &c., &c., &c.—After the examination of the treaty between the Governments of Her Britannic Majesty and that of the United States of America, dated at Washington, May 6,* 1871, by virtue of which the above-named Governments have submitted to our arbitration the question at issue between them, viz., whether the line of boundary which, according to the treaty, dated at Washington, June 15, 1846, after it had been continued westward along the 49th parallel of north latitude, to the middle of the channel which separates the continent from Vancouver's Island, shall be further drawn southerly through the middle of the said channel and of Fuca Straits to the Pacific Ocean, should be run as claimed by the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, through the Rosario Straits or through the Canal of Haro, as claimed by the Government of the United States, in order that we should decide finally and without appeal which of those claims is most in accordance with the true interpretation of the treaty of June 15, 1846, have, after taking into consideration the statement of the experts and jurists appointed by us to report upon the contents of the respective cases and counter cases, with their inclosures, given the following decisions: The claim of the Government of the United States, viz., that the line of boundary between the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty and the United States should be run through the Canal of Haro is most in accordance with the true interpretation of the treaty concluded between the Government of Her Britannic Majesty and that of the United States of America, dated at Washington, June 15, 1846.

Given under our hand and seal, at Berlin, Oct. 21, 1872. (Signed) WILLIAM.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

[From the Statesman of Nov 27.]

The arrival of Col. N. H. Gates completed the trio of the Board of Equalization, and Monday the members held a meeting for business. The election of ex Governor Whiteaker as

PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD

was confirmed. Mr. John Walton was chosen Clerk, and Wm. Savage Messenger. The Board passed an order directing the Clerk to

NOTIFY THE GOVERNOR

of the organization, and readiness of the Board to receive any communication he might have to make. The next step of the Board was to order a supply of stationery and provide itself with NEWSPAPERS.

The morning Herald, the Evening Bulletin, the MORNING OREGONIAN and the Weekly Mercury being the newspapers blessed with the approval of the Board, were ordered. Yesterday the Board spent the day in discussing rules for future proceedings, examining the assessment rolls, etc.

A CIRCULAR

to the county Boards of Equalization was adopted last week, and printed copies have been forwarded to the several County Clerks. The following is a copy of the text of the circular:

"GENTLEMEN—Herewith enclosed please find a copy of an act of the Legislative Assembly of this State, 'To provide for a State Board of Equalization,' approved October 25th, 1872. Under the provisions of this act the said Board met and organized as therein provided for. The Board being anxious of availing themselves of any and all information which might assist them in an intelligent discharge of their duties under the law, would respectfully call your attention to its provisions, and would invite information and suggestions from you as a County Board, as individual members thereof, or as citizens.

While the act herein transmitted is intended for your general information touching this subject, your attention is especially called to sections 5 and 43 of the same.

We would further request your attention to the Act of 1864, General Laws, page 627, of the Code, and to the act of 1870, page 9, pamphlet edition of Revenue Laws of this State.

In order to avail themselves of such useful information as you will probably have it in your power to impart, this Board confidently hopes you will be able to give the subject matters, here in referred to, your early attention. Your communications may be addressed to the 'State Board of Equalization,' at this place."

Value of Sheep Raising.

The high price of wool this year, and the great demand for sheep or lambs for meat, has made many a farmer wish he had a good flock of sheep. The price of wool for a few years has been so low and fluctuating that it has led the farmers to kill off their sheep, and just the same results follow that have in years before, they find when wool advances they have no sheep on hand. We have advocated high prices for wool, advising farmers if they had any and could afford to hold it not to sell. Although there has been a little depression in the market, we still adhere to the view, that the woolen mills during the coming season will be large buyers of domestic wools, and we notice the reports from foreign markets show great firmness abroad arising from the same causes that prevail in this country—shortness of supply. Nor do we think, with the growth of business in our country will supply for several years to come, exceed the demand for medium grade of wools which are the staples grown here. The question of raising sheep for their meat is not an unimportant one; with the growth of our country the consumption of vegetables increase, and the favorite meat, now, and that which brings the highest price is lamb; and with an increasing interest in it as the most wholesome and and palatable of all meats, it is already getting so scarce and high that it has to be purchased only as a luxury by those who can afford it. We have spoken thus far of the demand for wool and mutton at the price that will pay largely for sheep-keeping.

Their value to the farm is not, perhaps, fully understood. It is an old proverb, "wherever the foot of the sheep touches the land turns into gold." Sheep will enrich land faster than any other animal. On the mountain pastures they are valuable in clearing up the land, freeing it from weeds, shrubs and briars, and brings it to clover and nutritious grasses. They are easily raised and cured for both summer and winter. The risk in loss by death is small, and if well managed will not die in debt to the owner. If it dies the first year, the wool and pelt is worth all it has cost up to the time. Sheep husbandry has a value to make the land more profitable, more productive, at a less expenditure than any other animal kept on the farm.—N. E. Homestead.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, Nov. 27, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 113⅞.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 88c buying; 89c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool—Average, 12s 6d@12s 8d; Club, 13s 3d@13s 6d.

Miscellaneous.

The marine arrivals at San Francisco from foreign and domestic supply ports for the first half of the current month, compare as follows:

	Vessels	Tons	Freight
Nov 1 to 16, 1870	38	19,249	$141,746
Nov 1 to 15, 1871	15	5,919	105,816
Nov 1 to 15, 1872	46	27,268	212,612

Embraced in the arrivals for the first half of the present month were 16 whalers, 11 in ballast and 1 trader.

During the harvest year ending September 1st, Great Britain imported 39,000,000 cwts of Wheat and 3,232,000 cwts Flour. The imports of Wheat there show an increase of 4,500,000 cwts over the previous harvest year, and 1,500,000 cwts over 1869-70. The quantity received from America was 9,500,000 cwts, last year against 12,551,000 cwts for the previous year, and 14,749,000 cwts, for the years 1869-70.

The bark Mandarin, 403 days out from Antwerp for San Francisco, is reported at Falkland Islands. She is so badly damaged that her cargo has been transferred to the British bark Satsuma and forwarded to its destination.

Panama dates of November 4th report the arrival of the Constitution on the 29th ultimo, and the Montana on the 3d instant.

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—Is coming to hand in increased quantities, though we hear that many farmers still refuse to sell, holding back for higher rates. We would be most happy to furnish news which would ensure a realization of this hope, were it in our possession, but a careful observation of the probabilities in the case precludes us from believing that the desired rise will take place. Our latest from California shows some little improvement in the market there, some choice Middling bringing as high as $1 70 ₩ cental, and the bulk of quotations being above $1 60. Were the tonnage here to carry our supplies away we would reap the advantage of this slight advance, aggregating considerable, but as circumstances are, our figures are unchanged, and $1 40 is still given as the ruling rate. This is low we know, but at the same time buyers are not forward.

The barks Grasmere and Naworth and the ship Zouave will carry away a total of near 115,000 bushels. The first has nearly completed her cargo and gone down the river and has probably gone to sea. The Zouave is probably at Astoria with her cargo all in, and the Naworth has received about 300 tons. Two more arrivals at Astoria are reported: the British ship Victoria Nyanza, with Railroad Iron, and the British bark Channel Light. The first will be loaded by Messrs. Hewett, Wilson & Co., and will not be ready to take in cargo before the middle of next month, if that soon. The Channel Light comes to Rodgers, Meyer & Co., and will be loaded for them by Allen & Lewis; she will probably be ready by the middle of next week, and will receive quick despatch.

FLOUR—Is in better demand, and shipments are being made to a considerable amount. Prices are unchanged and the supply is fair. Many of our mills are again running on full time. A slight decline was noted in the San Francisco market at one time during the week, but it recovered, and the latest quotations are the same ruling as at our former report. Our market is quoted in jobbing lots as follows: Extra of Standard brands, $5 ₩ bbl; choice country, $4 25@4 75; and for outside and superfine, $3 75@4 ₩ bbl.

OATS—Are more in favor, and prices are strong with good demand. More purchasers are to be found in the interior, and our quotation of $1 50 ₩ 100 lbs is freely offered. This cereal is extensively demanded in San Francisco, and prices there are given at $1 85@2 05 ₩ cental.

HAY—Is firm at $10@12 for wild and $16@20 for timothy, according to the quality and style of saving, only the best baled commanding the latter figure. Receipts continue very fair, with a perceptible increase in the demand. Were there facilities for reaching Eastern Oregon and Idaho with our hay this winter, these sections would be our best market, as the winter promises to be severe, and the grass has already been extensively destroyed by the freezing weather.

FEED—Is coming forward in quantities equal to the demand, and prices are well maintained. We quote Bran, $15, Chops, Middlings, etc., $22 50@35 ₩ ton.

POTATOES—Are in fair supply, with a better demand for best qualities, while poorer grades seem to be dull. We quote best at 80c@$1 ₩ 100 lbs.

DAIRY PRODUCTS—The market is in good supply, and prices for choice articles of Butter are firm at 60c ₩ lb. Inferior is much cheaper, and the stock is large, with a weak demand.

DR. RESSER,

Third st., bet. Mill and Market streets,

SECOND DOOR FROM CORNER OF MARKET.

DR. RESSER HAVING LOCATED HIMSELF IN Portland, permanently, makes both

Liver & Lung Diseases

A SPECIALTY,

And is now prepared to treat patients for those diseases.

Not being fortunate enough to have treated a great many eminent and distinguished persons, whose names are most generally emblazoned to the world by advertising physicians; but at the same time I can produce numerous and voluntary testimonials from those I have treated for the above diseases.

It is well enough known throughout California that I am the possessor of a secret to prepare a medicine, purely vegetable, for the above diseases, and have made some of the

Most Remarkable Cures on Record,

And in cases which were entirely despaired of by other physicians.

A Card to the Public.

Having learned that Dr. H. RESSER has located himself in Portland, I deem it my duty to the public, and more particularly those persons who may be afflicted as I have been. After leaving Portland, a few months ago, I became afflicted with Epileptic Fits, and after having tried and consulted several distinguished physicians, without any benefit whatever, I was advised to call on Dr. H. RESSER, who happened to be visiting Virginia City at the time on professional business. I lost no time in placing myself under the care of DR. RESSER, and am now restored to perfect health. I can most highly recommend DR. RESSER to those who may be equally afflicted.

FREDERICK FORNER.

Other Testimony.

MR. EDITOR: I saw in your last issue of the Press a card written by Mr. Robinson, and I deem it my duty also to make a similar statement, for the benefit of those who are troubled with disease of the lungs. Three years ago I commenced under the treatment of some of the most skillful physicians of the Atlantic States, who pronounced my case Bronchial Consumption. After treating with them about two years, with but little benefit, I was advised a change of climate, which I made, and came to Santa Barbara about a year ago, with the hopes of a speedy recovery, but could not see that the change had been what I anticipated until a month since I commenced under the treatment of Dr. RESSER, and have improved in health very much in that time, and am confident in a short time I will be restored to perfect health under his treatment. I cordially recommend DR. RESSER to the public.

MRS. M. L. REYNOLDS.

Santa Barbara, June 21, 1871.

Card.

ST CHARLES HOTEL,
SANTA BARBARA, Cal. May 26, 1871.

I consider it my duty to the public to make the following statement, hoping that some unfortunate invalid may be benefitted by it. Having been sick for some time with lung disease (or consumption) I applied to many physicians in San Francisco and other places, under whose treatment I found no relief. A short time since I met Dr. Resser here in Santa Barbara, and knowing of some of the wonderful cures he has made in different parts of the State, I put myself under his treatment and commenced to improve immediately. I can warmly recommend Dr. Resser to all who are afflicted with this dreadful disease, as he makes the lung and liver disease his specialty.

ELIJAH ROBINSON,

Card.

It is well known here that I have been under the doctors' care for the last twelve months in San Francisco and here, but could receive no benefit from any one. When Dr. Resser arrived here, a short time ago, I put myself under his treatment, and commenced to improve immediately, and I am confident that in a short time I shall be restored to my health again. I can highly recommend Dr. Resser to the public.

COLEMAN O'DONNEL.

Virginia City, Oct 15, 1872.

Card.

To remove all doubt from the public mind in relation to a question which has created some dispute in San Jose, I feel it my duty to make the following public statement of facts. It is well known that my wife was very low with consumption—so low, in fact, that I had given up all hope of her recovery. I called on Dr. H. RESSER, who makes consumption his specialty, and in two weeks time my wife's health had so improved that she was able to walk out, and for the last three weeks has been on a visit to San Francisco, and is growing stronger every day. I can recommend Dr. RESSER to all who are afflicted with diseases of the lungs.

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance, may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
